

NORDIC BLUEBERRY

Deep purple, softly sweet and unmistakably Nordic!

The Nordic blueberry – also known as bilberry or wild blueberry – has always been part of our forest heritage. Grown under endless summer light and cool northern nights, the berries develop a colour and intensity of flavour that simply cannot be replicated elsewhere.

For our NORDIC BLUEBERRY we use berries from certified organic harvesters in the Nordic region. Carefully pressed and blended with a splash of organic lemon juice & the finest quality sugar, the result is a soda that captures the true essence of the Nordic forest – smooth, aromatic and naturally rich. No added aromas and no colourants – just nature itself in a bottle.
